The Dalles, OR (10/23/09) – On a windy night by the Columbia River Friday night two teams battled it out for IMC supremacy. The Dalles-Wahtonka, unbeaten in their previous 6 games and leading the conference was hosting the 3-time defending IMC champion Mountain View Cougars, who came in with a 5-1 record.

Since 2006, The Eagle-Indians had been dominated by Mountain View, having been outscored 125-14 in that span. But the 2009 Dalles-Wahtonka squad was a different team, entering the game with an unblemished record and a #8 state ranking. And this game turned out to be everything that the fans had hoped for. Both teams traded field goals in the first quarter, and then touchdowns as the first half came to a close. But with just :15 seconds left before halftime, Eagle-Indians quarterback Duncan Wilcox connected on a 69 yard touchdown pass to put The Dalles-Wahtonka ahead. But a missed extra point would turn out to haunt the Eagle-Indians later in the game.

In the third quarter, Mountain View would get 2 touchdown passes from their sophomore quarterback Jacob Hollister, one for 49 yards to Cody Davis, and the other a 23 yarder to Jesse Zapata to put the Cougars ahead 24-16. As the fourth quarter began, both teams would trade possessions until Eagle-Indians quarterback Duncan Wilcox would strike again. This time Wilcox threw a 30 yard pass that wide out Nate Timmons caught with one hand in the end zone for a touchdown, pulling The Dalles-Wahtonka within a 2-point conversion of tying Mountain View. But the Cougar defense stepped up once again by stopping the Eagle-Indians runner short of the goal line, and preserving a 2 point lead.

The Mountain View defense would be called on one more time before the clock struck zero, but came through again as Cougars not only held on to a 24-22 win, but moved one step closer to a 4th straight IMC championship. With the win, tenth ranked Mountain View moves to 4-1 in the IMC (6-1 overall), and has a home game against Crook County Friday night. If the Cougars win, they will share the IMC title with either The Dalles-Wahtonka or Bend.
